

Be God's portal

I. The Great Commission, Matt 28:19 tells us that everything we do needs to be in line with getting people to heaven. It is based on relationship building, because the bible uses words like disciples and teaching.

The key here is therefore to become good at building relationships, so that people will respect you and follow you. We as Christians are to have influence in people's lives. Influence does not mean everyone will like you, but even if you are persecuted you still influence the lives of the ones persecuting you, otherwise they would not have bothered.

We as Christians know that the only way to God is through Jesus Christ, who died on the cross and carried the burdens of our sin. We need to remember that Jesus also taught us on earth how to live and showed the perfect example of how to act and react. (The Apostle's Creed was invented by the Catholic Church and skips this part. Yet, we are to follow Jesus' example more than theological teaching and instead of church doctrine.)

King Jesus said He is the Truth, the Way and the Life, John 14:6. What this meant to the Jews was the following: the gates at the temple were called this. *Read commentary to church.**

Likewise today the church doors are The Way. The message is come to church, commune with God's children and come meet Jesus. Repent and accept Jesus as the Saviour who was the perfect sacrifice (altar). Be baptised (laver). Then, as you accept the bible and God's lead, King Jesus will bring you through the second door into the Holy Place, being set apart from others. Let the Holy Spirit baptise/fill you (menorah), pray and intercede (incense) and commune with Him (table of showbread). Letting the Word and Spirit heal, cleanse and sanctify you and you giving your life over to Him, He opens the third door into heaven for you, to become one with God. From the Throne of heaven God will release the Life into you as his child.

II. The Temple Mountain: Abraham met a priest of Jerusalem called Melchizedek, then later God told him in Gen 22 to sacrifice Isaac, so he went back to this place, then called Mount Moriah. Jacob fled from his brother Esau and had a special dream seeing a ladder and angels going up and down. This was in the same place. Later King Solomon built the temple there. After the Jews were dispersed Mohammed came and put up the temple there preventing the Jews now to build the temple they badly want to. It may not be the exact spot where the Dome of the Rock is, but definitely in the same geographical area at Jerusalem.

This particular place is a spiritual portal. Likewise there are other spiritual portals, like our church for instance. We pray and praise teach the Truth and Welcome God to work through the Holy Spirit. As God is repetitively welcome by us and we never resist his anointing sticks to this place.

Where-ever you pray earnestly over and over on the same place you will change the universe so that there is a portal opening up at that point. I have such places in my life I can identify, some are better than others. Occultists and satanists are very aware that portals are opened in certain places if they do their sacrifices there.

I believe that the actual space-time continuum changes and has less resistance to the spiritual, i.e. the veil between the natural and the spiritual is thinner in the location of a portal. Many people react spontaneously when entering such an area. If it is demonic innocent people get attacked not understanding why.

The EU governments built a large machine in CERN to break the space-time continuum, so that they can open up a 100% direct portal to “parallel universes”, i.e. to the spiritual realm. This is all over the internet from previous workers who blew the whistle. Looking at Rev

Deliverance ministers are also aware of these places and have gone to close these where people have been attacked by demons manifesting in their homes. This is done by anointing and prayer. This is also what I did in Portugal, tearing down high places and plugging demonic portals. I always released over these places prayers for people to get saved, for revival to break out and for the Truth to be known.

III. Who we are as God's children and what we do: Read John 14:12 and Luke 6:39-40. Jesus gave the secret of you and I being a portal for him away with the following: John 7:38. It clearly mentions life flowing from within you, which can only come through the door/portal of Life, straight from the Throne of God. The bible confirms our position by stating we are seated in heavenly places (Eph 2:6).

Read also John 4:14, Jer 17:13, John 7:37-39, Rev 22:1-2.

As his child you are a walking talking portal to God, making Living Water available to anyone we are willing to share with.

The question is whether you and I let this living water flow or whether we keep it away from people. Do our words speak life or do we keep people in drought? Does the church at each location issue rivers of life or is the spring dead? Do we let the Water flow or do we block it? Do we let others starve from God by keeping the sluices closed?

Life comes in words, in caring, in helping and in releasing what is inside of you to the person next to you. For example a heartily hug, kind words and a gentle touch all releases Love easily.

We are to check our tongues, to clean our hearts and to avoid being negative, have pride or reacting wrongly. I is in the middle of pride. God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble. When someone comes to us for help, we are to release the life of God. This life of God can be shown with acts of Love, words of comfort, Truth or Exhortation or releasing directly to other with laying up of hands. The latter is called impartation, as you give what is inside you to another.

Our words and our hearts will determine how much anointing God will rest upon us. As He is holy He cannot be unequally yoked, so how much anointing you have, comes from how much God has of you.

If God only has a small part of you little Water of Life will come through. If you have obstacles like sin, pride and reacting wrong then these will restrict God's living water as well. We need to keep on asking the God changes us, to keep on bowing down and giving over bit by bit, step by step every day.

The way. The truth. The life. The offer corresponds with the three entrances of the tabernacle. The sinner came first to the gate, the wide open gate with its invitation to the people to come in. That way led directly to the altar and to the laver, to cleansing from sin and to peace with God. Then came the door, half as wide and twice as high as the gate. Not so many ever passed this portal, but those who could and did entered into the holy place and stood in the presence of truth—the lampstand promising illumination, the shewbread on the table offering communion, the golden altar indicating intercession—all higher truths than are grasped by those who never progress beyond a bare salvation. Beyond all this was the veil, leading into the holy of holies, where few could penetrate. There was the mystery of life: the cherubim overshadowing the mercy seat, ever occupied with the blood sprinkled there; the ark with pot of manna, the unbroken law, the rod of Aaron with its buds, blossoms, and almonds, all speaking of the deep things of Christ; and over all the shekinah glory cloud in which God himself dwelled.
